

Cancellation Policy (not applicable to membership or sponsorship arrangements)

Cancellations must be made in writing to the RMIA Corporate Office. A refund of 100% of the registration fee for all events except the National Conference and Accreditation programs will be made if received in writing by the national office 1 week prior to the event. A forfeit of full registration fees applies with less than one week notice of registration cancellation to the said event. Registration can be transferred, provided any additional charges are paid at the time of transfer, i.e. member transferring to non-member. All charges are to be advised in writing to the RMIA Corporate Office. Any refund will be made after the event.

The Risk Management Institution of Australasia accepts no responsibility for any charges incurred by cancellation of hotel accommodation or fees, charges, fines and any insurances, loss or damage sustained by delegates in connection with the event. All fees and rates quoted are to be paid in Australian dollars and include GST.
