A request for suspension of membership must be for a period of not less than 1 year or more than 4 years. It is at the sole discretion of the Board to grant or refuse the suspension of membership and the Board's decision will be communicated through a formal letter. Once approved the member will not be able to utilise their CTM, or post nominal's during the suspension period. Any fees paid by the member to RMIA will not be refundable under this Article.

2.8 Variation of classes and class rights

Subject to the Corporations Act 2001 and the terms of a particular class of membership, the Company may vary or cancel rights attached to being a Member of that class by a special resolution of the Company.

3. Fees

- (a) A Member must pay the Annual Fee each year on or before the date prescribed by the Board.
- (b) The Board shall review all Annual Fees prior to the end of the Company's financial year and prescribe the Annual Fees for the following year.
- (c) The Board may make fees payable for one or more Members, or classes of Members, for different amounts and at different times.
- (d) The Company will not refund to a Member any Annual Fee, application fee or CTM Annual Fee in the event the Member ceases to be a Member pursuant to Article 2.5, 2.6 or 2.7 of the Constitution.

4. Proceedings of Members

4.1 Who can call meetings of Members

- (a) Subject to the Corporations Act 2001, the Directors may call a meeting of Members at a time and place as the Directors resolve.
- (b) The Directors must call and arrange to hold a General Meeting on the request of Members made in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001.
- (c) The Members may call and arrange to hold a General Meeting as provided by the Corporations Act 2001.

4.2 Annual General Meeting

- (a) The Company must hold an Annual General Meeting if required by, and in accordance with, the Corporations Act 2001.
- (b) The business of an Annual General Meeting may include any of the following, even if not referred to in the notice of the meeting:
 - (i) the consideration of the annual financial report, the Directors report and the auditor's report for the Company;
 - (ii) the appointment of Directors; and
 - (iii) the appointment of the auditor of the Company.

4.3 How to call meetings of Members

- (a) The Company must give not less than the Prescribed Notice of a meeting of Members.
- (b) Notice of a meeting of Members must be given to each Member, each Director and any auditor of the Company.
- (c) Subject to Article 4.11 (h), a notice of a meeting of Members must:
 - (i) set out the place, date and time for the meeting;

- (ii) state the general nature of the business of the meeting; and
 - (iii) set out or include any other information or documents specified by the Corporations Act 2001.
- (d) Subject to the Corporations Act 2001, anything done (including the passing of a resolution) at a meeting of Members is not invalid if either or both a person does not receive notice of the meeting or the Company accidentally does not give notice of the meeting to a person.

4.4 Right to attend meetings

- (a) Each Member and any auditor of the Company are entitled to attend any meetings of Members.
- (b) Subject to this Constitution, each Director is entitled to attend and speak at all meetings of Members.

4.5 Meeting at more than one place

- (a) A meeting of Members may be held in two or more places linked together by any technology that:
 - (i) gives the Members as a whole in those places a reasonable opportunity to participate in proceedings;
 - (ii) enables the Chairman to be aware of proceedings in each place; and
 - (iii) enables the Members in each place to vote on a show of hands and on a poll.
- (b) If a meeting of Members is held in two or more places under Article 4.5(a):
 - (i) a Member present at one of the places is taken to be present at the meeting; and
 - (ii) the Chairman of that meeting may determine at which place the meeting is taken to have been held.

4.6 Quorum

- (a) Subject to Article 4.6(e), a quorum for a meeting of Members is 25 Members entitled to vote at the meeting present in person or by proxy.
- (b) In determining whether a quorum for a meeting of Members is present:
 - (i) where a person is present as a Member and as a proxy or attorney for another Member, the person is counted separately for each appointment provided that there is at least one other Member present; and
 - (ii) where a person is present as a proxy or attorney for more than one Member, the person is counted separately for each appointment provided that there is at least one other Member present.
- (c) A quorum for a meeting of Members must be present at the commencement of the meeting. If a quorum is present at the commencement of a meeting of Members, it is taken to be present throughout the meeting unless the Chairman otherwise determines.
- (d) If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for a meeting of Members:

- (i) if the meeting was called under Article 4. 1 (b) or Article 4.1 (c), the meeting is dissolved; and
 - (ii) any other meeting is adjourned to the date, time and place as the Directors may, by notice to the Members, appoint, or failing an appointment, to the same day in the next week at the same time and place as the meeting adjourned.
- (e) If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for an adjourned meeting of Members:
- (i) if there are not less than five Members present, they shall constitute a quorum; and
 - (ii) otherwise, the meeting is dissolved.

4.7 Chairman of meetings

- (a) The Chairman must (if present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting and willing to act) preside at each meeting of Members.
- (b) If at a meeting of Members:
 - (i) there is no Chairman;
 - (ii) the Chairman is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of a meeting of Members; or
 - (iii) the Chairman is present within that time but is not willing to preside at that meeting, the Directors present may, by majority vote, elect the President or another person present to preside at all or part of the meeting of Members.

- (c) Subject to Article 4.7(a), if at a meeting of Members:
 - (i) a Chairman of that meeting has not been elected by the Directors under Article 4.7(b); or
 - (ii) the Chairman elected by the Directors is not willing to preside for all or part of the meeting of Members, the Members present must elect another person, present and willing to act, to preside for all or part of that meeting.

4.8 General conduct of meetings

- (a) Subject to the Corporations Act 2001, the Chairman of a meeting of Members is responsible for the general conduct of that meeting and for the procedures to be adopted at that meeting.
- (b) The Chairman of a meeting of Members may delegate any power conferred by this Article to any person.
- (c) The powers conferred on the Chairman of a meeting of Members under this Article 4.8 do not limit the powers conferred by law.

4.9 Resolutions of Members

- (a) Subject to the Corporations Act 2001, a resolution is passed if more votes are cast in favour of the resolution by Members entitled to vote on the resolution than against the resolution.
- (b) Unless a poll is requested in accordance with Article 4.10, a resolution put to vote at a meeting of Members must be decided on a show of hands.
- (c) A declaration by the Chairman of a meeting of Members that a resolution has on a show of hands been passed, passed by a particular majority, or not passed, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting, are sufficient evidence of that fact, unless proved incorrect.

4.10 Polls

- (a) A poll may be demanded on any resolution at a meeting of Members except:
 - (i) the election of a Chairman of the meeting; or
 - (ii) the adjournment of the meeting.
- (b) A poll on a resolution at a meeting of Members may be demanded by:
 - (i) at least three Members present and entitled to vote on the resolution;
 - (ii) Members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on the resolution on a poll; or
 - (iii) the Chairman of the meeting.
- (c) A poll on a resolution at a meeting of Members may be demanded:
 - (i) before a vote on the resolution is taken; or
 - (ii) before, or immediately after, the result of the vote on the resolution on a show of hands is declared.
- (d) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- (e) A poll demanded on a resolution at a meeting of Members must be taken in the manner and at the time and place the Chairman directs.
- (f) The result of a poll demanded on a resolution of a meeting of Members is a resolution of the meeting.
- (g) A demand for a poll on a resolution of a meeting of Members does not prevent the continuance of the meeting or the meeting dealing with any other business.

4.11 Adjourned, cancelled and postponed meetings

- (a) Subject to the Corporations Act 2001, the Chairman of a meeting:
 - (i) may; and
 - (ii) must, if the Members present with a majority of votes that may be cast at the meeting agree or direct the Chairman to do so;
adjourn a meeting of Members to any day, time and place.
- (b) No person other than the Chairman of a meeting may adjourn the meeting.

- (c) The Company is only required to give notice of an adjourned meeting if the period of adjournment exceeds the Prescribed Period.
- (d) Only business left unfinished is to be transacted at a meeting of Members resumed after an adjournment.
- (e) Subject to the Corporations Act 2001 and this Article 4.11, the Directors may at any time postpone or cancel a meeting of Members by giving notice, of not less than 5 Business Days before the time at which the meeting was to be held, to each person to whom the notice of the meeting was required to be given.
- (f) A general meeting called under Article 4.1 (b) must not be cancelled or postponed by the Directors without the consent of the Members who requested the meeting.
- (g) A general meeting called under Article 4.1 (c) must not be cancelled or postponed by the Directors without the consent of the Members who called the meeting.
- (h) A notice of adjourning or postponing a meeting of Members must set out the place, date and time for the revised meeting (and if the revised meeting is to be held in two or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate this).

4.12 Methods of Voting

- (a) A Member may vote by post or internet or others means as defined by the Company.
- (b) To cast a valid vote, a Member must cast the vote in accordance with the voting instructions, consistent with the Constitution and any regulation, as the case may be.
- (c) A Member may vote only once. If a Member attempts to cast more than one vote, only the first received by the Returning Officer will be accepted, irrespective of whether that vote is formal or informal.

4.13 Number of votes

- (a) Subject to this Constitution and any rights or restrictions attached to a class of membership, on a show of hands or on a poll at a meeting of Members every Member present has one vote.
- (b) In the case of an equality of votes on a resolution at a meeting of Members, the Chairman of the meeting has a casting vote on the resolution both on a show of hands and on a poll, in addition to any vote the Chairman has in respect of the resolution.
- (c) A Member present at a meeting of Members is not entitled to vote on any resolution if any amount due and payable in respect of that person's membership has not been paid.
- (d) A Member present at a meeting of Members is not entitled to vote on a resolution if the vote is prohibited by the Corporations Act 2001 or an order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

- (e) The Company must disregard any vote on a resolution purported to be cast by a Member present at a meeting of Members where the person is not entitled to vote on the resolution.
- (f) The authority of a proxy or attorney for a Member to speak or vote at a meeting of Members is suspended while the Member is present in person at the meeting.

4.14 Objections to qualification to vote

- (a) An objection to the qualification of any person to vote at a meeting of Members may only be made:
 - (i) before that meeting, to the Directors; or
 - (ii) at the meeting (or any resumed meeting if the meeting is adjourned), to the Chairman of the meeting.
- (b) Any objection under Article 4.14(a) must be decided by the Directors or the Chairman of the meeting of Members (as the case may be), whose decision, made in good faith, is final and conclusive.

4.15 Proxies and attorneys

- (a) A Member, who is entitled to attend and cast a vote at a meeting of Members, may vote on a show of hands and on a poll:
 - (i) in person;
 - (ii) by not more than one proxy; or
 - (iii) by not more than one attorney.
- (b) A proxy or attorney of a Member need not be a Member.
- (c) A Member may appoint a proxy or attorney for:
 - (i) all meetings of Members; or
 - (ii) any one or more specified meetings of Members.
- (d) An instrument appointing a proxy is valid if it is signed by the Member making the appointment and contains:
 - (i) the Member's name and address;
 - (ii) the name of the proxy or the name of the office held by the proxy; and
 - (iii) the meetings of Members at which the proxy may be used.
- (e) Except for the Chairman no Member may hold more than 10 proxies.
- (f) The Chairman of a meeting of Members may determine that an instrument appointing a proxy is valid even if it contains only some of the information specified in Article 4.15(d).
- (g) An instrument appointing an attorney must be in a form as the Directors may prescribe or accept, from time to time.

- (h) Subject to the Corporations Act 2001, the decision of the Chairman of a meeting of Members as to the validity of an instrument appointing a proxy or attorney is final and conclusive.
- (i) Unless otherwise provided in the Corporations Act 2001 or in the appointment, a proxy or attorney may:
 - (i) agree to a meeting of Members being called by shorter notice than required by the Corporations Act 2001 or this Constitution;
 - (ii) agree to a resolution being either or both proposed and passed at a meeting of Members of which notice of less than the Prescribed Period is given;
 - (iii) speak on any resolution at a meeting of Members on which the proxy or attorney may vote;
 - (iv) vote at a meeting of Members (but only to the extent allowed by the appointment);
 - (v) demand or join in demanding a poll on any resolution at a meeting of Members on which the proxy or attorney may vote; and
 - (vi) attend and vote at any meeting of Members which is rescheduled or adjourned.
- (j) Unless otherwise provided in the Corporations Act 2001 or in the appointment, a proxy or attorney may vote on:
 - (i) any amendment to a resolution on which the proxy or attorney may vote;
 - (ii) any motion not to put that resolution or any similar motion; and
 - (iii) any procedural motion relating to that resolution, including a motion to elect the Chairman of a meeting of Members, that the Chairman vacate the chair or to adjourn that meeting,even if the appointment directs the proxy or attorney how to vote on that resolution.
- (k) The Company must send a form of proxy to Members in respect of a meeting which provides for the Member:
 - (i) to appoint a proxy of the Member's choice, but may specify who is to be appointed as proxy if the Member does not choose; and
 - (ii) to vote for or against each resolution, and may also provide for the Member to abstain from voting on each resolution.
- (l) If the name of the proxy or the name of the office of the proxy in a proxy form of a Member is not filled in, the proxy of that Member is:
 - (i) the person specified by the Company in the form of proxy in the case the Member does not choose; or
 - (ii) if no person is so specified, the Chairman of that meeting.

- (m) A Member may specify the manner in which a proxy or attorney is to vote on a particular resolution at a meeting of Members but, unless specified, the proxy or attorney may vote as he or she thinks fit.
- (n) An appointment of proxy or attorney for a meeting of Members is effective only if the Company receives the appointment (and any authority under which the appointment was signed or a certified copy of the authority) not less than 48 hours before the time scheduled for commencement of that meeting (or any adjournment of that meeting).
- (o) Unless the Company has received notice in writing before the time scheduled for the commencement or resumption of a meeting of Members, a vote cast at that meeting by a person appointed by a Member as a proxy or attorney is, subject to this Constitution, valid even if, before the person votes, the appointing Member:
 - (i) dies; or
 - (ii) is mentally incapacitated; or
 - (iii) revokes the appointment of that person; or
 - (iv) revokes the authority under which the person was appointed by a third party.

5. Directors
